

City Psychology Service

ADHD – Latest Research and Practical Support Strategies.

Course Details

Dates and Times Friday 8th November 2013

Venue Collegiate House, College Street, Leicester. LE2 0JX
☎ 0116 221 4800 📠 0116 221 1216

Alternatively this course can be run as a bespoke package within your school – to discuss dates etc. please contact paul.riddick@leicester.gov.uk

Audience

- Class Teachers, Teaching Assistants, Subject Teachers, Form Tutors, Behaviour and Learning Mentors

Areas Covered

- ADHD – identification and assessment, latest research on causes and prevalence, classroom support strategies.
- Interventions to develop skills for attention, activity control and impulse regulation

Course Outcomes

- Participants will acquire an enhanced understanding of the psychological principles that influence children's learning.
- Practical strategies that improve children's learning outcomes and a better understanding of a child as an individual in their own right

Course Leader Dr Paul Riddick

Cost Leicester City Maintained Schools/Settings: £115 per delegate
Non-Maintained Schools/Settings : £138 per delegate

How to apply To book your place visit www.lls.leicester.gov.uk
Full terms and conditions can be found on the website